

K-LOVE radio is important to me and my community because it provides "family safe" programming and biblical support. K-Love is essential to the public interest because there is such a limited amount of this type of media available today, and the negative "me first" main-stream media's message is damaging our youth & future.